

30 JULY 2023

Dear Friends

Saturday 29 July is the Festival of Mary, Martha and Lazarus, companions and hosts of Our Lord.

Mary, Martha and Lazarus were siblings living in Bethany, exemplifying family love. They were close friends of Our Lord, loving Jesus. The family feature in the raising of Lazarus, and in the divergent ways Martha and Mary welcome Jesus into Martha's house – Martha by fussing over the preparations for their guest, whilst Mary devotes her attention to listening to His discourse.

We will hold our Sunday service, the eighth after Trinity, at 10.30, accompanied by Francesco's organ playing.

From the Treasurer - Friends of All Saints Fund

Way back in 2012, the Friends of All Saints Fund was established to “reach out to the wider Milan and Lombardy community interested in the activities of the Church”. The fund was financed with €715, and since 2012 very little has happened, though through charitable, social and interfaith activities our Church has and continues to deliver on the Fund’s objectives. As a result, I am planning to seek approval through Council and through the approval by Church Members of the 2023 Financial Statements to close this fund and transfer the balance to our General Fund. Before I do this, I am opening my intentions up to consultation, so if you have any contrary views or alternative suggestions, please reply to allsaintsmilantreasurer@gmail.com before 15 September.

Photographs of our parish life

We are updating the All Saints’ website. If you own any photographs which could be considered for use depicting the Church or our events, please send these to the email delivering this newsletter. Due to privacy laws in Italy and our Church privacy policies, these photographs should not depict identifiable people, unless it is easy for us to contact them to gain permission for use.
