

26 NOVEMBER 2023

Dear Friends

This Sunday the Rev'd Katharine Rumens will lead our Eucharist Service at 10.30, when we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King.

Tuesday 29 November is marked as a special day of intercession and thanksgiving for the missionary work of the Church. Please consider including those involved in such work in your prayers that day.

For pastoral care during the coming week, please telephone (0039) 345 5835978 (Church mobile), (0039) 026 552258 (Priest's apartment), or email allsaintsmilanpriest@gmail.com

Seeking a parish auditor for 2024

After many years of excellent service, Roger King is retiring as our auditor at the 2024 Annual General Meeting. We need a replacement for next year. Our financial statements have been simplified over the preceding years, and the task should not be onerous. If any parishioner knows of an auditor or firm of auditors who could be interested, please send contact details to our Treasurer, Rupert at allsaintsmilantreasurer@gmail.com. This could be an audit firm who audits a company you own or work for.

All Saints' Christmas Fair – December 2

We continue to seek donations in good condition: Clothing and shoes, scarves / foulards, costume jewelry — especially pins and broaches — children's toys and books, household items, handmade gifts etc.

If you are a baker, please bring a cake or biscuits, cookies, etc. Ask Lee for recipes and what sells best.

And tell your friends! Invite them along by word of mouth, or spread the news by social media, for example by sharing the Christmas Fair poster on our FB page. The more the merrier!

Join us on the day to browse the wonderful stands. Bring your friends! Tell them you will meet them at the fair to look around together. Remember to eat a yummy lunch or a snack upstairs at the All Saints' Country Kitchen!

Let's all make this our most fun and successful Christmas Fair ever.
