Dear Friends

The Rev'd Dr Nick Fisher will lead our Eucharist on Sunday at 10.30.

Last Sunday Florine announced our new priest – the Rev'd Dr James Hadley, or Fr James as he likes to be known. We are working toward him starting with us on Sunday 8 September. Fr James has written this introduction:

"Dear All Saints' congregation,

It is such an honour that our bishop, Robert Innes, has entrusted me with the cure of souls at All Saints' Milan, appointing me as the next chaplain. I very much look forward to getting to know you all and ministering alongside you. So much good is happening at All Saints' and I truly look forward to being a partner in the Spirit's work among you.

I hail from the state of Illinois in the USA, though I have lived in Italy since 2012. Before being ordained priest in the Church of England I taught theology and church design at various universities in Rome. As a pastor, I have a great interest in worship that inspires, the art of preaching, building community, and enabling outreach.

Coming to Milan feels something of a homecoming. My first visit to Italy in 1996 as a university student was to Milan and Como - I had the doors of the Metropolitana close on me, and even visited the Church of the Ascension! I truly believe God does guide our ways as his beloved children and opens before us the path of life, so we entrust our future together as the church of All Saints' to God's loving purposes. See you soon!

St Ambrose, St Savina, pray for us.

Fr James"
